The clue which led detectives to the man's home was a pair of $1 bills found in a snow-covered alley behind his home on Tuesday by two boys, who took the bills to the police station.

Detectives recognized them as counterfeit.

Neighbors told police that on Dec. 4 there had been a fire in the apartment. Firemen appeared and threw the plates and bogus bills out with the other junk, police said.

Flyers Single From Regina

MOREY RIMSTAD

BING MERLUK

SPORTS

HAROLD DEAN, Sports Editor

Flyers, who just couldn't negotiate the title on foreign ice early in the season, now hold decisions over three clubs on their home ice with Calgary Stampede also ticketed for special attention in the future.

Edmonton's initial win in Regina could hardly have come at a more opportune time, for in addition to leaving them one point away from Capital, it placed them within comfortable striking distance of the leading Stampede. It also meant a three-game margin over both Lethbridge and Saskatoon.

Last night's substantial victory must have been quite a shock to the burgers in Regina as well as to Capital. Another pair of points from the Quakers tonight would leave Flyers in a cosy spot with a game in hand over Calgary.

May Require Replacement for Black

ALTHOUGH Flyers are rolling along quite smoothly, they are not too happily situated from the manpower viewpoint. Chances are that Louis Haines will soon be back, with just a possibility he may be ready to go Saturday, and the early return of "Big" Young also looked for.

The darkest cloud on the Flyers' horizon right now is that Johnny Black's injury is not responding to treatment as had been hoped for and he may be out indefinitely, if not for the entire season.

Tommy McCready, high-scoring Camrose Maroon, has been approached with a view to a try-out. A former EAC junior, Tommy was with Wetaskinwits last season and although normally a centre, has been getting excellent results in a wing position. He might fit quite nicely into the Flyers' picture.

Buddy Loftus Looking West

THE call of the fairways has reached the ears of a young Edmontonian a little earlier than usual this year, and as a result this city may lose its most promising golfer.

He is a blond-headed Buddy Loftus, city and provincial junior champion, who is leaving for Vancouver in a few days—and if his job-hunting is as good as his putting, pitching and driving, he won't be back. He won't return till spring in any case and if he finds a "good job" out there his permanent address will be Vancouver, British Columbia.

Buddy intends to concentrate on his golf during the winter months and has already made arrangements with Stan Leonard, leading Canadian professional, to take a series of lessons when the Coast sea returns from his excursion along the Gold Trail.

Expects to Play Bud Ward

Loftus has high hopes of playing with Bud Ward, one of the top players in the United States. Ward is a frequent Vancouver visitor in the winter months and Dunc Sutherland, former Edmonton County Club pro who was here for the Alberta open, assured Loftus that such a game could be arranged.

Bud is fully aware of the fog on the Coast at this time of year, but they fail to dim his enthusiasm. He recalled that Alex Olmyn played some pretty classy golf out there a month ago and he could barely see his ball take off.

If Buddy decides to return in the spring his golf should be as sharp as a razor.

Ask Removal of Coarse Grains From Grain Exchange Operations

Removal of coarse grains from operations of the Grain Exchange with marketing of such placed in the hands of the Wheat Board to be marketed to best advantage, is sought by the United Farmers of Alberta, through a resolution passed at the annual convention in the Macdonald hotel Thursday morning.

POLICY of the Canadian government in a "too rapid" removal of controls, was scored in the resolution which contended that such policy in the case of oats and barley has distorted price relationships in agriculture and accelerated inflation.

Keen disappointment at the general economic policy of the Dominion Government was expressed by R. Hon. James G. Gardiner, minister of agriculture.

Recent removals of ceilings on oats and barley have "seriously threatened Canadian agriculture," according to the resolution.

THE RESOLUTION was introduced by the UFA board of directors.

At the noon adjournment Thursday delegates were debating a resolution urging removal of Canadian Government restrictions on the shipment and sale of cattle to the United States.

This resolution, also introduced by the UFA board, contends that "the U.S. is the natural and logical market for Canadian live cattle."

THE DOMINION government is asked to immediately set up machinery to export a limited number of cattle to the States so as to maintain American market connections and surplus money obtained in this way be used in the interests of the beef cattle industry.

It was noted the Canadian beef cattle industry has been subject to rigid controls and price ceilings in order to enable fulfillment of United Kingdom beef contracts despite the removal of ceilings on practically all other products.

A resolution from Alberta UFA federal local urged improvement of dairy cattle through importation of dairy heifer calves from B.C. by the Alberta government and sold to dairy farmers.

Revision of the provincial car insurance plan to provide full coverage at a reasonable flat rate is sought by Peace River locals.

This resolution contends the present act does not provide adequate protection, making necessary further insurance with private companies.

Brush clearance at road intersections in the interest of greater safety is sought through a resolution UFA local, resolution. The government is asked to carry out a program of brush clearance without delay.

Conferring that U.S. highways built much longer than those in Alberta the government is urged to send a committee to the States to study methods of road construction there.

During discussion of the cattle industry, a delegate stated the co-operative horse meat processing plant in Edmonton could be converted into a Co-op beef packing plant.

In Lethbridge plans are ready to proceed with operation of a co-op packing plant.

Brief Presented at Probe

Ask Trained Workers Get Posts in Welfare Branch

A brief presented today to the Royal Commission appointed by the Alberta government to investigate welfare conditions in the province asked that future appointments to the Child Welfare Branch staff be filled where possible by persons trained in present-day welfare techniques.

THE BRIEF, presented by R. H. C. Hooper, executive director of the Calgary Council of Social Agencies, advocated closer cooperation between departmental and voluntary agency workers and amendment of Section 9 of the Child Welfare Act to require disclosure by provincial welfare workers of information acquired by the department to qualified private agency workers.

It was suggested that present personnel be familiarized with legal procedures outlined in legislation to give accurate advice to needy mothers and also that the department might employ a legal advisor.

Mr. Hooper said he thought the general feeling of the public and practices of the Alberta Child Welfare department were not in conformity with modern, accepted standards and there was a lack in the province of strong leadership at the top. The Calgary branch of the Child Welfare department was staffed by officials who, in the opinion of the Calgary Council of Social Agencies, were not qualified for their positions.

The THREE-MAN commission was appointed by the government after a survey within the province had been made by the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire by Dr. Charles Whittin last year and also as a result of various newspaper articles criticizing the administration.

A clipping from the Chicago Sun, read yesterday to the commission said California took the greatest number of Alberta babies adopted in the United States for adoption.

The article, published March 27, 1945, alleged that Utah ranked second with Montana and Wisconsin following in the list in terms of Alberta babies taken.

DR. WHITTIN produced the clipping to illustrate his contention that there has been wide interest in the export of Canadian babies to the United States before he conducted her study of Alberta's welfare regulations.

The provincial chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, which had childless American couples had found "orphan" babies in Alberta and that children in Canada were being found for adoption. A San Francisco woman had been discovered this. She adopted one child and later four more. Word spread by grapevine.

Chief Justice W. R. Howson, commission chairman, said that when the commission considered the legal argument later it would want to know the significance of the exhibit.

During cross-examination of Mr. Hooper, Bruce Smith, K.C., provincial government counsel, referred to the witness' statement that the provincial government does not supply sufficient information when it sends babies to the United States. Mr. Hooper replied he would be willing to call witnesses to substantiate his charge.

"Is there any official at the Mountview home who is employed by the province?" asked Mr. Smith.

"YES THERE IS," replied the witness. Mr. Hooper added he believed the superintendent was in the employ of the government.

When asked if he was absolutely certain of this statement, witness stated he was suppressing an error to guard against making any error.

Mr. Smith then warned the witness not to be sure of his statement and to guard against making any error.

Chief Justice Howson reminded the witness he is supposed to tell the truth, and he believed, he should answer Mr. Smith's question.

When Mr. Smith placed the question before Mr. Hooper again, witness replied, "I do not know."

In reply to the next question Mr. Hooper stated there are officials employed at the Mountview home who have been appointed by the municipality.

School 'Achievement' Tests May Become Annual Event

Prediction that some sort of an achievement test, similar to the one carried out a year ago in Grade 6 of Alberta schools would become an annual event was voiced by officials of the department of education on Thursday morning.

The tests are designed to measure the achievements of the pupils under the "enterprise system" of teaching and last year were the first examinations to be marked by the marking machine installed by the examinations branch.

Announcement on the tests cannot be expected for another month, according to officials of the curriculum branch who said that a series of meetings is being planned to determine which grade should be selected this year for the experiment.

Visiting Edmonton

Division of Palestine Criminal Says Moslem

The partitioning of Palestine is criminal, Abdur-Rahman Lutz, acting Grand Mufti of the Moslem religion for the western United States, declared in Edmonton Wednesday.

"PALESTINE HAS BEEN AN Arab country for generations and the entire Moslem world believes the partitioning is criminal," said Mr. Lutz. In relation to this statement Mr. Lutz emphasized the fact that Moslems are not anti-Jewish, but very anti-Zionist. According to the Moslem religion one must be anti-Jewish.

"If the United States can exert sufficient power to assist in giving away another person's country, surely those countries people can be absorbed into the United States," stated the acting Mufti of the western states.

Quoted regarding the present Palestine situation, Mr. Lutz replied that both Christian and Moslem Arabs strongly oppose the partitioning, and are prepared to defend their stand to the end.

Mr. Lutz discounted a local mid-December report that two ex-war pilots had been contacted by the Arab Friendship League regarding fighting as volunteers against the Jews in the Holy Land. It was rumored that pay of $1,000 monthly had been mentioned for fighter and bomber pilots. The Edmonton Visitor referred to the rumor as being fantastic.

When asked if he had any military connections, Mr. Lutz said he had no military connections. "My interests are strictly religious and I am definitely not recruiting," he added that all Moslems were a national interest in the present Palestine situation.

ABDUR RAHMAN LUTZ was born and educated in the United States. He was converted from Christianity to the Moslem religion while working with the British American Oil Company in Arabia in 1932. Since that time he has made one visit to Egypt when he attended special classes at the City of Al-Bahar University.

Mr. Lutz is now working on the establishment of a Moslem magazine to be published in Detroit. Within the next six months he will be moving to Detroit. Moslem men are to attend a three-year course at the City of Al-Bahar University. The young men will be trained to take up Shufi positions and to be used as Moslems.

There are two houses in the city of New York and one in Chicago where he is being used as Moslem. Mr. Lutz's headquarters are presently in Sacramento but they will be moved to Detroit.

ABDUR RAHMAN LUTZ will address a meeting in the Edmonton El-Rashid Mosque Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Lutz's address is outlined in the "Understanding of the Moslem Religion." The meeting will be open to the public.

Growing Like a Weed

"Search and Rescue" One Year Old Today

By Bob Jellison
HALIFAX, Jan. 15.—(CP)—RCAR Search and Rescue, nearly mature after growing like a weed with the experience of 100 operations to its credit, will blow out the single candle on its birthday cake today.

THREE LANCASTER Bombers, equipped with 27-foot mahogany lifeboats will be added to its facilities in the near future, and officials say the expansion program will continue.

Search and Rescue set up shop Jan. 15, 1947, in a large, windowless room, walled by huge maps, charts and blackboards. In the headquarters building of No. 19 group, it had a few facilities that first day, but "nobody knew we were here."

Everyone who has been in trouble since that day knows they are here today. The unit's benevolent tentacles spread from that room half way across the Atlantic north of 28 degrees and east of 70 degrees west.

The 10 air force men who make up the rescue centre here exist to find people who are lost and send aid where it is needed.

They were on the job when the freighter Wicklow Head grounded at Fort Mouton, N.S., in May, when the Langierac piled up off Newfoundland in July, when the Greek freighter Manassas met a similar fate off Sable Island, when an Eskimo on Hudson Strait needed hospital treatment for a gunshot wound, when a 14-year-old girl was dying of pneumonia in Harbin, Harbin, Que., when four hunters were lost in Queen's County, N.S., when forest fires swept Cape Breton Island, and when the Bertha Sky Queen landed perilously on Atlantic waters.

THEIR CHIEF stock in trade is an elaborate communications system which enables co-ordination of work in their territory. Their allies are the RCAF, RCN, RCA, commercial shipping companies, salvage firms, radio stations and fishermen.

When a freighter requests aid because its propeller is lost, they usually call a salvage company, which sends a tug. Or they may alert fishermen in the area to sail out and have a look. If a plane is lost, they call commercial radio stations to broadcast the information and ask listeners to report any clues.

Air operations by the unit itself are conducted from a base at Greenwood, N.S., 105 miles west of here. Its facilities include two Can-Can and a helicopter, but the first Lancaster to arrive will double its searching potential.

Here, there are two high-speed rescue launches and other craft. When the unit needs more vessels or planes, it asks the services and the requests have always been granted.

Carpenters Offered Work in Canada
HEIDELBERG, Jan. 15.—(Reuters)—Carpenters among displaced persons in the United States group in Germany have been offered a chance to resettle in Canada to work for the hydroelectric commission of Ontario.

Seven hundred men can be absorbed by the project, it was announced. The candidates will be paid at prevailing Canadian wage scales, will be housed in temporary quarters, and will be sent to the United States to be interviewed by the work stoppage.

Pays Final Penalty
HAILEYBUOY, Ont. Jan. 15.—(CP)—John Gagne, 27-year-old East Angus, Que., bookman, was hanged early yesterday for the dog-chain murder of Robert Todd, 15-year-old prospector, whose body was found Jan. 14 in a garbage-strewn dugout beneath his northern cabin near Wrentham.

Recovered Paintings

If Pictures Could Talk Stories They Might Tell

OTTAWA, Jan. 15.—(CP)—If pictures could talk there are several "old stories" hanging in the National Art Gallery which probably could bring to light some of the best-loved and dagger-tails of the Second World War.

This is the first appearance in Canada of a collection of paintings stolen by the Nazis when they overran the Netherlands and later recovered by the Allies.

Canada's Governor General today will officially open the exhibition, which already has been on tour throughout the United States. Next month it will be sent to galleries in Toronto and Montreal, before being returned to Holland in April.

"It is a matter of celebration that this exhibition of some of the art treasures looted from the Netherlands during the war and restored to their owners through the competent and devoted services of expert teams attached to the Allied forces, has now found its way to Canada," said Dr. J. H. Van Bollen, Netherlands ambassador to Canada, who played a leading part in obtaining the exhibition for Canada.

"To Canada these paintings bring the grateful message that what brave Canadian soldiers helped save and free was not only the soil and the cities, but at the same time the mind and soul of a nation."

The exhibition comprises a representative selection of 40 paintings, most of which date from the 17th century, the great period of Dutch art. Included are portraits, rich interior scenes and still lifes, by such renowned artists as Ter Borch, de Meester, Van Loon, Rembrandt, Jan Steen, and Jacob Van Ruisdael.

Prog.-Cons. Name Pryde Candidate

HENSLALL, Ont. Jan. 15.—(CP)—Thomas Pryde, 59-year-old manufacturer from nearby Essex, yesterday was chosen Progressive Conservative candidate in the Huron riding to election set for Feb. 16, and it was indicated the contest might be a straight fight between Liberals and Progressive Conservatives.

John Huxford, CCF candidate in the 1962 general election, announced he would not run in the by-election, which was announced by Dr. H. Hobbie Taylor, Progressive Conservative, who died last month. Mr. Huxford will support Mr. Pryde. No other CCF candidate has been mentioned.

Liberals of Huron meet here today to nominate their candidate.

At the time of her centennial celebration, Mrs. Glen attributed her longevity to "porridge in my younger days and a little meat now."

A native of Renfrew, Dumfriesshire, Scotland, she came to Canada in 1911. Survivors include another son, A. D. Glen, and a daughter, Miss Anne Glen, both of Vancouver.

A private service conducted by Rev. O. W. S. McCall will be held here Friday in a private cemetery.

Suggest Changes At Pensions Meet

OTTAWA, Jan. 15.—(CP)—A three-day Dominion-provincial conference on old age pensions regulations and administration ended here yesterday after delegates had suggested a number of changes.

Health Minister Martin said the changes suggested at the meetings, held in camera, were aimed at assuring the "widest possible measure of uniformity and the utmost fairness in the administration of the old age pensions act in all parts of Canada."

He said the changes were necessary as a result of amendments to the pensions act last year to provide for increased federal payments to pensioners.

All provincial governments were represented at the meetings.

Any Girl Can Ward Off the Wolves With This Latest Type of Self-Defense

By MARILYN LAMBORN
TORONTO, Jan. 15.—(CP)—I just tossed a 300-pound policeman over my shoulder—and got away with it.

It was all a gag—a demonstration in "defence" to be exact, that muscle-smashing art of self-defence.

I scoffed when the instructor said even a 120-pound female reporter of the unathletic type could bounce a giant off her shoulders. So before I knew it I was facing this big cop across a gymnasium mat.

It was easy! He co-operated by making for my throat in a rear attack. First I knocked the air out of him by moving back. When his hands shot forward I grabbed them in a painful twist and doubled us as he flew over my head.

Originator of the course, Bill Underwood of Toronto, averred that "defence" cures inferiority complexes, banishes fear, provides family entertainment and protects daughters and sisters.

Although the name may sound like a drug, a modern novel or a suit of mail armor, it is "the ultimate in self-defence."

With a knowledge of five fundamental grips after only one lesson, mother, grandmother or sister can ward off wolves.

Most interesting grip is dubbed "Cleopatra's spread" because the defender ends up sitting comfortably on her attacker's back as if it were a couch.

Hair-grabbing is an accepted method of self-protection and there are special instructions to be used on bald-headed men.

"If like it because it gives the law a lot of added respect," said my policeman friend. "And I don't dirty my uniform."

There may be no defence to "defence" but you need a character reference to take the course.

Plan to Co-operate On Civic Centre

The civic centre committee of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce will co-operate in the fullest extent with the special committee of city council appointed last Monday. The council committee was named to coordinate the opinions of organizations and individuals on the question of the type, size and other features of an auditorium and arts centre for Edmonton.

The civic centre committee of the Chamber of Commerce will prepare a brief for submission to the committee which will contain the suggestions of its members and will spectrally deal with plans for the integrating of the proposed auditorium and arts centre into the entire civic centre scheme.

In preliminary studies of the proposed centre, the selection of the site is most important, and also of equal importance is the necessity of provision in the auditorium of facilities for the holding of large conferences, show rooms and display space and other facilities.

The Council of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce Wednesday approved of the policy adopted by the civic centre committee on the auditorium proposal.

The civic centre committee is in discussion with Dr. P. L. Frazer, bridge engineer inquiring into cross river traffic and bridge access, expressed the opinion the bridge would not support a strong toll for construction of bridge already existing design. Committee members favored the maximum utility at lowest cost.

Grade 12 Diplomas

Are Mailed Out

Grade 12 diplomas were mailed out to 2738 high school students in Alberta Thursday, Mr. W. H. Swift, deputy minister of education.

Swift emphasized that these diplomas could not be called matriculation certificates, since all pupils who attain the Grade 12 standard do not wish to enter university.

The certificates were mailed out on Feb. 8, last year. Mr. Swift said and went to 3,183 graduates.

Increase in the number of diplomas was due to the fact that last year a large number of veterans had completed their high school education. A few veterans were included in this year's list.

The Coming Russian Terror

By Stanislaw Mikolajczyk
Former Prime Minister of Poland and President of the Polish Peasant Party

Installment X

How 11,000 Polish officers, the cream of Polish youth, met death in the Katyn Forest, near Smolensk, shot by the Russians with German approval, is told for the first time in today's installment of "The Coming Russian Terror," by Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, who escaped from his native Poland to reveal these and other shocking facts.—EDITOR.

The complete story of the murder of 11,000 Polish officers in the Katyn Forest near Smolensk has never been told. But because I am free today I can shed new light on a catastrophe which, while numerically small in the great picture of World War II's mass murders, remains significant because it gave Russia a long-awaited reason to break diplomatic relations with Poland and because it remains a milestone in the appeasement of the USSR by the British and Americans.

I HAVE ALREADY outlined the repeated inquiries made of Stalin (former bureau called the German allegations "false fabrications"). The Polish Cabinet met the next day and made a public announcement that we had asked the Red Cross to inquire into the tragedy, and we made it very strong that we were unwilling to accept the German side of the story. Our first statement declared:

"THE POLISH Government denies to the Germans the right to draw from a crime which they describe to others, arguments in their own defense. The profoundly hypocritical indignation of the German propaganda will not succeed in concealing from the world the many cruel, regulated and still lasting crimes committed on the Polish people."

We listed a number of those crimes, "... so as not to enable the Germans to lay claim to claims to appear in the role of defenders of Christianity and European civilization."

On April 18, a campaign of abuse against the Polish Government opened in the Russian press. The following day Pravda, in its lead article, declared that members of Gen. Sikorski's government had swallowed a carefully baited hook thrown out by the German propaganda.

OUR SIMPLE appeal to the Red Cross, Pravda said, aided the German fabrication of "a foul lie which will fill all people of common sense with repugnance."

These Poles who willingly assist at Hitler's forgery and support it and are ready to co-operate with the little hangers of the Polish people, will go down in history as Hitler's helpers. The Polish people will turn away from the Stalin, as I have earlier noted, and set up their own Communist-dominated Polish "government" in the USSR, and we in London now knew that he had set upon the Katyn murders as a reason to break with the true Government in London.

The blow fell officially on April 21 when Moscow handed a note to Tadeusz Moncor, our Polish Ambassador in Moscow. It was the new historic note which began:

"THE SOVIET Government considers the recent behavior of the Polish Government with regard to the USSR as entirely abnormal and violating all regulations and standards of relations between the two Allied states."

The note accused the Germans of the murders, charged that we in London had been plotting to seize territory (the area of Poland which the Red Army had occupied in 1939) from the USSR, and it concluded:

"All these circumstances compel the Soviet Government to recognize that the present Government of Poland, having slid on the path of accord with Hitler's government, has actually discontinued Allied relations with the USSR, and has adopted a hostile attitude towards the Soviet Union."

"ON THE STRENGTH OF the above, the Soviet Government has decided to sever relations with the Polish Government."

Gen. Sikorski immediately asked to see Anthony Eden and was criticized for the present Government in Washington, our Ambassador found Sumner Welles suddenly chilly and to other mistakes.

We, who had been advised by Britain and the U.S. to stick to the world our long quest for the men, were now placed in the difficult position of prostrate in a split among two Allied powers.

The International Red Cross dropped its plea on April 27 because no "corresponding invitation" had been received from Moscow.

(Tomorrow, Mr. Mikolajczyk's further revelations concerning the Katyn murders.)

U.S. Films Must Continue Tax Pay
LONDON, Jan. 15.—(AP)—A high government source said emphatically yesterday that Britain will not reduce its 5 per cent. tax on United States motion pictures in the near future even if it means a "famine of films." His assertion came little more than a week after the Cinemaexport Exhibitors Association reported that backlogs of American films—those imported just before Hollywood banned shipments because of the tax—have just about run out. "We can't afford to export $750,000 worth of food," the source said, "and that is what this would amount to."

More than 40 per cent of the world's gold supply is produced in Africa.

Seeks Indemnities While Interned
QUEBEC, Jan. 15.—(CP)—Mayor Camille Houde of Montreal is trying to obtain his parliamentary indemnities for the period during which he sat in the Quebec legislature for Montreal's Mayor, Le Soleil said a newspaper story yesterday.

The total U.S. bird population has been estimated at roughly 3,000,000,000.

Magistrate Shows Sympathy for Yet

CALGARY, Jan. 15.—(CP)—Harry A. Read, 32, of Calgary and Medicine Hat, yesterday was placed on a four-year suspended sentence when Magistrate C. H. Rose terminated the stay of the Second World War veteran's life since his discharge "as an indication of our white society."

Read, a bomber pilot with the RCAF, pleaded guilty in a charge of assault with intent to rob the main branch of the Bank of Montreal in Calgary Dec. 24.

A native of Medicine Hat, Alta., Read followed a meek and unassuming career by hitting out over Sweden following a bombing raid on the city.

Read had been held in military hospital in Calgary and Toronto and later had been told that his physical treatment was unnecessary.

Read was employed with the department of transport at Toronto's Malton Air Station after his discharge in 1944 but had to give up his position because of his back affliction.

ANNOUNCING—THE NEWEST NEW TRUCK ON THE ROAD

For 1948 Fargo presents a wide range of completely modern trucks. From the speedy 1/2-ton Pick-up to the husky, heavy-duty models, these good-looking FARGOS will add profit to your business. You'll agree they have more improvements and offer greater value than you've seen in a truck for years.

One of FARGO's most noteworthy features is a new principle of weight-distribution. For years trucks have carried most of their weight on the rear axle. Wider treads provide better roadability, greater stability and easier handling. Braking area is increased as much as 20% for better braking power and extra safety. Wheelbases are shorter, making the new FARGO easy to maneuver in small loading areas. Under the hood everything is conveniently located for servicing. The powerful, 6-cylinder I-6 engine has a reputation for reliability and long life. Each FARGO truck has an engine of exactly the right power to suit its hauling capacity. Wasteful overpowering or harmful underpowering is eliminated.

Drivers have been given more consideration than ever before. 1948 FARGO cabs are roomier and well weather-proofed. Wide, comfortable seats are adjustable for back-ache as well as forward and backward. Floors are clear from door to door. You can get in and out easily from either side. Rubber mountings between the cab and frame dampen vibration and road-shock. Higher, wider windshields and windows allow better all-around vision. Controls are located for comfort and convenience.

You may inspect these good-looking Fargo trucks at your nearest Chrysler-Plymouth-Fargo Dealer. He will show you more than 60 NEW Chrysler-engineered features that make these great new FARGO trucks the biggest truck value on the market to-day.

Steel Production At Peace-time High

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Steel production this week in the United States hit a new postwar high, a rate that would produce 8,350,000 tons of steel ingots an average of 150,000 tons a day, national metal-working weekly, said Wednesday.

Production has not been attained since the all-time high in 1944.

Steel firms are still buoyant the free steel scrap market in an effort to force scrap prices higher.

The paper's index of the average price of No. 1 cast iron scrap rose to $60.53 a gross ton, or almost $20 a ton more than the average price of pig iron.

Iron ore prices may increase soon by $2 or $3 a ton, it said.

The steel input rate this week, based on the 1947 capacity figure, went up 1 point to 98.5 per cent of capacity.
